This half-day conference is your chance to meet other birdwatchers from Hertfordshire and our neighbouring counties, discover what is going on in the county and listen to topical talks. There will be plenty to do before the talks start at 2:00pm and during the tea interval, including displays, sales tables, a competition and raffle.

The cost, inclusive of afternoon tea, is £7 (£5 for those who are under-18, unemployed or in full-time education). Tickets are available now from Tim Hill, 82 Pentley Park, Welwyn Garden City, Herts, AL8 7SG, by completing the booking form below. Refunds (less 50p administration fee) will be available up to seven days prior to the Conference.
